You Are Our Horse Heroes

Without your continued financial support, these success stories wouldn't be possible.

Meet YOUR lasted miracle: Valentino - "Tino" for short.

When this thoroughbred weanling arrived at our farm:

Now a beautiful young man, getting trained for a great future:

One of the Valentine's Day Thoroughbreds, Valentino was skinny and unfamiliar with humans. His Mom, emaciated from feeding a baby, was finally able to get fed by herself and regain her health.

Tino, once weaned from his dam, quickly learned that those humans were bringing feed, hay and water. Nothing to worry about, after all.

Your support has provided for this stunning baby! He will also be gelded and is currently in training to lead, stand for the farrier & vet and much more.

Miracle Number Two

Valentino's Dam Kay (K's Good Girl)

Bringing Kay and her baby to our farm in March was an easy decision to make. Both were underweight, Kay was infested with rain rot and not in very good condition overall.

Kay, at 15 years old, had a rough winter with a nursing colt by her side.

Kay now happy and healthy and well on the road to a full recovery.

THANK YOU FOR HELPING US HELP KAY

Back From Training

Paint Now Available For Adoption

Paint came to us as an unruly stallion with Jack. He was immediately gelded and introduced to being handled.

After 10 months of professional training, Paint arrived back at our farm in May. He has been ridden in the arena and on trails and is looking for a special home with a very experienced horse person.

Speak Up For Horses Updates - Not Just Horses

Remember this classy goat lady?

We are thrilled to announce that she has found a permanent home at a Farm Animal Sanctuary in Indiana! She has been named Greta and enjoys her new found friends, 2 and 4 legged alike. She is loved and spoiled as she deserves.

Wishing her the very best in her retirement!

Perfect Adoption

A match we could only hope for

Jack, one of the unhandled stallions (immediately gelded of course) we sent to Ben for training, has found his soul mate. Jack & Julie made friends the second they met. He's already been on trails and is now learning dressage moves. It will be an absolute pleasure to watch him grow with his very own person who makes him feel safe and wanted.

Planning Ahead

Hay, hay and more hay.

We always have to look ahead, keep the hay barn full and order future loads of hay way in advance of winter. It's never ending. But our horses need to have full tummies.

All the time!

Our most recent load of 400 square bales of beautiful brome hay cost $ 2,000

You can help securing future deliveries of nourishing hay by simply giving via our easy links to PayPal. Choose an amount below and click.

All donations are tax deductible
